

Fletcher takes away nine Commercial Project Awards

We're delighted to announce that Fletcher took away nine awards at the 2016 Master Builders Commercial Project Awards. One of the most prestigious industry events of the year, the Commercial Project awards recognise excellence in construction. A range of projects from across the country received gold, silver and bronze awards across a range of categories, including:

- Kathleen Kilgour Centre Radiotherapy Unit (Building + Interiors Waikato/Bay of Plenty): National Category winner in the NALCO Health Project category, Gold Award winner in the NALCO Health Project category
- Whangarei Pak N Save (Building Auckland): Gold Award winner in the Retail Project Category
- Bledisloe Lane, Auckland (Auckland Interiors): Gold Award winner in the James Hardie Commercial & Civic Category
- Northwest Shopping Centre (Auckland Building): Gold Award Winner in the Retail Project Category
- Gillies Hospital (Auckland Interiors): Silver Award Winner in the NALCO Health Project Category
- Redcliffs New World (Building + Interiors Christchurch): Silver Award Winner in the Retail Project category
- Christchurch Memorial RSA (Building + Interiors Christchurch): Silver Award winner in the Retail Project category
- Fletcher Building Shared Services – 323 Great South Road (Auckland Interiors): Bronze Award winner in the James Hardie Commercial & Civic category

Congratulations to all the teams behind these outstanding projects!